QCT eNews

News for teachers from the QCT

April 2010

Dear Queensland Registered Teacher,

Welcome to QCT eNews. The purpose of this email bulletin is to advise you of a new publication for registered teachers and to update you on QCT activities and matters concerning your teacher registration.

Inside Teaching

The QCT is pleased to announce that the first issue of the new national professional magazine for registered teachers is now available. This magazine replaces the QCT's newsletter, QCT Connection.

To view a PDF flyer with more information about the new magazine, click here:

Renewal of registration

If you have full registration and have been registered with QCT for five years, your registration will need to be renewed before the end of this year. We will send you a renewal application form and further information well before your current period of registration ends.

Important information about renewal of registration is available here:

www.qct.edu.au/renewal/index.html

Information Sessions on Teacher Registration

The Queensland College of Teachers is holding information and professional development sessions on teacher registration across Queensland during term two.

Workshops for provisionally registered teachers:

Surveys

The QCT is currently undertaking two online surveys of teachers.

- Survey of fully registered teachers' understanding of registration renewal

This survey is being administered on the QCT's behalf by Footprints Market Research. The purpose of the survey is to help the QCT better focus its communication with teachers about the renewal process.

- Survey of recent graduates and principals' views on teacher education programs

This survey is being administered by Insight SRC on behalf of the QCT. It seeks the views of principals and beginning teachers on the effectiveness of Queensland preservice teacher education programs in preparing teachers for the classroom.

QCT Awards for Excellence in Teaching

Nominations will open shortly for the 2010 QCT Awards for Excellence in Teaching. The inaugural Awards last year attracted hundreds of nominations for excellent teachers around the State.

Look out for information about the 2010 Awards soon. A poster and nomination form will be available on our website [www.qct.edu.au] in late April and information will be emailed to all schools.

QCT Teacher Research Grants

Each year the QCT provides access to small grants to enable teacher-researchers to present their research findings at state or national conferences. Applications for 2010 grants close on 30 April. Find more information here:
